

国际合作与交流处

WETALK 工作坊部分主讲人简介及主讲话题

Cristina Crison

Master's in teaching and learning English as a foreign/second language, TESOL Certificate

Bachelor's in educational sciences: English major

Cristina Crison graduated as a teacher in 2016. Having completed her undergraduate studies at Universidad Técnica de Ambato she traveled to Spain to complete a graduate program at Universitat Rovira I Virgili. She has taught in Ecuador, Spain and China where she could share her teaching methodology while learning to teach English in different contexts. Ms. Crison has published research work on reading and pronunciation. Her classes are based on creating a safe space for students to feel confident when speaking in English while focusing on improving segmental and supra segmental aspects of pronunciation.

Workshops

- (1) Pronunciation: Voiced and voiceless
- (2) Consonant clusters
- (3) Stress and intonation
- (4) Weak syllables

Max Piekart

Postgraduate studies in Business Negotiations and Mediations

Bachelor's in Social Cognitive Pedagogy

With over 9 years of hands-on experience, Max Piekart is a teacher that has traveled and worked in North America, Belgium, Ireland, England, Poland, Netherlands, Georgia, China, and Korea. Mixing his two majors - teaching and business negotiations, he implements Summerhill's and Montessori's approach into a modern ESL classroom. In his classroom, the main focus is put on "opening up" the students - encouraging progress over perfection.

Workshops

- (1) A trip to New York
- (2) Plants that eat meat-Why?!
- (3) Weird food around the world
- (4) Making sushi in Japan
- (5) Fun facts about science
- (6) Gifts

Ying Liu

PhD. candidate in Women and Gender Studies, department of Sociology, University of Warwick.

Graduated as a Bachelor from Beijing Foreign Studies University, Ying has an IELTS score of 8.0 and was awarded Master's degree in Sociology from University of Warwick in 2012 and is currently at the last stage of her PhD research.

Ying's research expertise lies in qualitative methods including ethnography and interviews. Her passion for research lies in human-animal relationships, the ethics of care, and gender equality. Ying is also an experienced teacher in English Language and academic essay writing.

Workshops

- (1) Learning English, Don't Recite Words
- (2) How to travel like an anthropologist?
- (3) Is astrology scientific?
- (4) Have you survived the social media traps?
- (5) Gaokao: to make for it for the whole life
- (6) How to say 'no' in English and in Chinese

Yixin Wang

Ph.D. in Management Mathematics (Statistics)

Master's is in Mathematics, Operational Research,
Statistics and Econometrics

Has 5 years' study and living experiences in the UK. The main job for her is to finish postgraduate degree in the UK, in the meantime, she is also a teaching assistant in school and a tutor of Maths Support Center in the library. In these roles, she shares knowledges and helps students with specific skills in the field of what she majors in. Out of academic, she has travel experiences to other countries, ex. Austria, Germany, France, Spain, Monaco, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Morocco. In daily life, cooking and baking are of her interest.

Workshops

- (1) Study and entertainment time for UK students
- (2) Scientific investigation methods and simple machine learning
- (3) Irrational behavior in consumption
- (4) English learning tips for listening and reading
- (5) Daily and Travelling Common Phrases abroad
- (6) How Chinese student become a good chef in UK?

Zijian Wang

PhD candidate in Business and Management,
Warwick Business School.

Zijian's research interests focus on behavior change methods and behavioral economics, particularly on how to motivate people to provide efforts without increasing economic incentives and the individual differences in behavior change. His research approach involves applying psychological insights in both business decision-making and policy processes. He holds a MSc degree in Behavioral and Economic Science and a BSc degree in Economics. Also, he has experience in teaching statistics, financial economics, game theory, and international business, etc.

Workshops

- (1) Adam Smith: The founding father of economics
- (2) Behavior change: When people change behaviors
- (3) Irrationality in procrastination
- (4) Irrationality in buying behavior
- (5) Behavior change: Why changing habits is hard
- (6) Behavior change: When people change behaviors

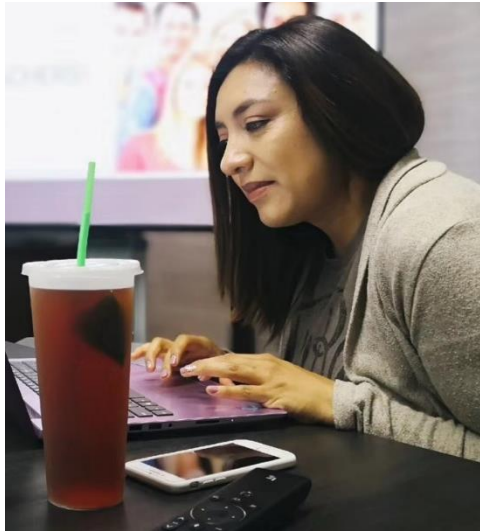

Maria Maja Mrozinska

Master's in Graphic Design

Workshops

- (1) Makeup power
- (2) My life in China
- (3) Tips for learning second language
- (4) All about Art
- (5) Hobbies
- (6) Different lifestyles
- (7) Health care
- (8) Philosophy

Valeria Camino

Master's in Education Majoring in Education Management

Bachelor's in Educational Science Majoring in English

Workshops

- (1) Easy Spanish
- (2) Animal migration. (Travel adjectives)
- (3) The longest journey in the space. (Critical thinking)
- (4) People in movies and the arts. (art and entertainment vocabulary)
- (5) Women in the space. (Speaking)
- (6) Film Festival. (types of movies and going to for plans)
- (7) Nature in art. (Critical thinking)
- (8) Camera traps. (Speaking)